

Please keep our airwaves free from garbage. There are places people can go if they want to seek out that filth. It's already hard enough to justify having the TV on in my home with the standards the way they are now. Any relaxing of the low standards we have now will be disasterous.